> Club Activities:

Offline activities:

February: Origin

What is the meaning of life?

Are some lives more important than others?

What is good?

Does a good exist?

Who define the goods?

Are humans ruining the earth?

Is it okay to judge others?

March: Love

What is love?

Does it matter who you love?

Is falling in love bad for you?

What happens when you're lack of love?

What would you do if you fell in love with someone you shouldn't?

April: Death

What happens after death?

Is physical death the true end?

Would you like to live forever?

Is the death penalty okay?

Should we legalize euthanasia?

May: Religion

Do humans need religion?

Is there a god?

Do you believe that there is another world beyond our material world?

Are beliefs voluntary?

Do you have enough reason to believe what you believe?

June: Free discussion

Group members may provide the topics, if not enough topics are collected, we would spend rest of the time discussing the self:

Are our perspectives really ours or are they from the environment where we were raised up in?

In what sense are you the same person today that you were when you were 10?

Are you still a human if your mind is uploaded to a machine?

Have you experienced dramatic change in personality or perspective? What you believe caused it?

The club will run on a 4-6 week cycle. In the first week of the cycle, discussion topics will be announced, and explanations and popular science will be carried out, mainly in the form of lectures. Each member of the club will prepare on behalf of a country. There will be no club activities in the second week, so leave time for everyone to prepare. In Week 3 (and possibly Week 5), the topic will be discussed. The fourth (or sixth) week will be left for everyone to rest and vote on the theme of the next cycle. The club activities will be recorded in the whole process, and we will make a video and post it to bilibili and youtube later.

BS | Literature Club

> Club leader: Victoria Wu (G10 Omega)

> Supervisor: Mr. Rohit

>Time & Location: Monday

> Form of Final Product:

Post or Posters, Articles, and Journals

> Club Activities:

Despite introducing literature styles and literary elements every class, we'll analyze and discuss poems or short stories over CCA time weekly and students will eventually come up with their stories, creative writings, or essays for practicing methods they learned through books. Specifically, my plan is to explore magical realism in-depth in the club as the major topic, including how writers shaped this style and portrayed characters. We'll encourage and help our members to participate in writing competitions during this semester, such as John Locke Writing Competition and New York Editorial Contest. We will also provide the school journal with some of our essays and papers for supporting it.

We may write some research or stories about insects, and we may make lots of specimens.

In winter, we are going to learn about the method to sort insects and some knowledge about them. Also, after buying the tools to make specimens, we can make some specimens together. Every week, we will learn the order and their typical insects. Every month, we will write an essay about a kind of insect. As for other seasons, we plan to find insects on the campus once a month. We would find out their species and make specimens with them. Everyone will contribute to the essay. Also, we want to teach some knowledge about insects, and we welcome every person who is willing to listen to us even though they are not in the club.

> Club Activities:

The Environment Club will help students learn about important environmental issues and the current challenges renewable energy faces (i.e. costs, power, location, etc.) in the contemporary world. The club will bring together students who want to contribute to earth protection, and conserve energy; discuss what can be done to preserve the environment, and implement sustainable practices that can promote the use of green energy through service projects. The goal of the club is to advocate awareness of environmental protection and natural resource preservation among all students and to make a difference in the local community through frequent volunteering work and education for children.

> Activities Plan:

1. Weekly lessons: In weekly lessons taught by the officers, students will learn about environmental issues, solutions to environmental problems, and relevant scientific knowledge. The lessons will be open to club members. Members are also welcome to give presentations.
2. Environmental awareness contest: A contest in which students test their science knowledge relevant to the environment. It will be open to all interested students at school. It will serve as a means to raise awareness of environmental protection. The contest will be held at the end of the school year.

3. Volunteering: Members will teach earth sciences in local underprivileged elementary schools. They will help kids learn more about the environment and donate relevant books. Volunteering events will take place once a month.

4. Fundraising event: A charity event for raising funds to donate to environmental charities. The fundraising event will be held twice a year.

5. Guest speaker events: The officers will invite guest speakers such as teachers to talk about environmental issues. There will be 3 events throughout the year.

6. Poster-making contest: Members of the club make posters to encourage environmentally-friendly actions. They will be encouraged to make use of their creativity, and there will not be any standards on how to make a poster or how the poster should look like. The posters will be shown to all students at school both on campus and online. Best posters will be selected by students and all students are invited to vote. This will take place once a year.

7. Tree planting day: In March, members will gather one day to plant trees at school. All students at school will be invited to participate in the event which both helps protect the environment and makes the campus more lovely and green. We will ask for permission from school first.

8. TED talk screening: The club officers will screen 3 TED talks: “How Human Noise Affects Ocean Habitats” by Kate Stafford, “Can Clouds Buy Us More Time to Solve Climate Change” by Kate Marvel, and “A Smog Vacuum Cleaner and Other Magical City Designs” by Daan Roosegaarde. Between each screening, there will be a five minutes’ break. Members are encouraged to attend, while all students at school are invited. Refreshments and drinks will be provided.

9. Environmental awareness week: In April, members of the club will organize a promotion event and deliver a presentation to fellow students. There will be 5 presentations on how to protect the environment, endangered animals, waste reduction and recycling, pollution and earth’s history respectively, each made by a group of 2 students. Refreshments and drinks will be provided.
